

IREN S.p.A: Additional periodic financial information.

Reggio Emilia, 24th January 2017 – Following the approval and the publication of the 2017 corporate events calendar and in light of what established by the “Regolamento Emittenti - Issuers Regulation” as amended by Consob Resolution no. 19770 – 26 October 2016, which introduced the art. no. 82-ter with effect from the 2nd of January 2017, with this press release IREN S.p.A. makes public the intention to continue to communicate, on a voluntary basis, the so-called “additional periodic financial information”.

“Additional periodic financial information”, starting from 2017 and until further notice, will be subject to the approval by the Board of Directors through meetings to be held within 45 days from the closing of the first and third quarter of each year and will be published, in accordance with the terms of the “Issuers Regulations”, via press release and corporate website.

The main items included in the “additional periodic financial information” will be as follows:

- Company structure and bodies;
- Summary of the economic results and the financial position;
- Analysis by business segment;
- Significant events of the period;
- Financial statements related to the economic situation and financial position;

The Company:

- Ensures consistency and accuracy of “additional periodic financial information” disseminated to the public and the comparability of information elements with the corresponding data included in the previous financial reports disclosed to the public;
- Ensures a timely, non-discriminatory access, reasonably suitable for the effective dissemination of information throughout the European Union.
